Dear Dr Singh,

WHO Prequalification Team – Prequalification of Quality Control Laboratories
Indian Pharmacopoeia Commission - Indian Pharmacopoeial Laboratory

This is in reference to the letter received on 8 August 2013 expressing interest of the Indian Pharmacopoeia Commission - Indian Pharmacopoeial Laboratory, to participate in the Procedure for assessing the acceptability, in principle, of quality control laboratories for use by United Nations agencies.

Thank you for submitting the data and information requested during the procedure and for the cooperation within the inspections.

We are pleased to inform you that the Indian Pharmacopoeia Commission - Indian Pharmacopoeial Laboratory is considered to be operating at an acceptable level of compliance with WHO Good Practices for Pharmaceutical Quality Control Laboratories (GPCL) and will be included in the list of prequalified quality control laboratories together with the areas of expertise inspected and considered prequalified (see Annex 1).

You can access the information on the prequalification procedure, as well as the list of prequalified quality control laboratories, on the website www.who.int/prequal.

According to the procedure, each prequalified Quality Control Laboratory should be after its prequalification re-evaluated on routine, as well as non-routine basis. Therefore, all laboratories listed are requested to submit a brief annual report on its activities related to quality control of medicines within a calendar year by the end of March of the following year at the following address (your first report should be submitted by the end of March 2016):

ENCL (2)

1. Area of expertise inspected and considered prequalified
2. Outline of the content of an annual report on activities of a prequalified laboratory
